From the Pastor...

ANXIOUS FOR NOTHING

Beginning on Sunday, July 1 we will be using as part of worship, a five-part video series narrated by Max Lucado based on his recent book entitled “Anxious for Nothing.” In this study, Max explores the promises of God based upon Philippians 4: 4-8. The titles for each week include the following:

- 1) Rejoice in the Lord Always
- 2) Let your Gentleness Be Evident to All
- 3) Present Your Requests to God
- 4) The Peace of God will Guard Your Heart
- 5) Meditate on These Things

I am looking forward to this experience of God’s message of peace for the troubled soul.

In addition, our church will dedicate a new organ on Sunday, July 22 at 2:30 pm. I hope that you will join us to recognize this special occasion. There will be fellowship after the service. We are inviting local church organists to be with us that day.

Finally, our nation will once again celebrate another year since its inception on July 4. Please take time during that day to remember the many sacrifices made by thousands of individuals to guarantee our freedoms. I hope that you and your families will enjoy the blessing and favor of God’s grace on that special day as Americans and believers in the Lord.

Happy moments, PRAISE GOD

Difficult moments, SEEK GOD

Quiet moments, WORSHIP GOD

Painful moments, TRUST GOD

Every moment, THANK GOD

SOLI DEO GLORIA!

Christian Book Club : The next scheduled selection for July is “Katie Luther, First Lady of the Reformation” by Ruth Tucker, a biography of Martin Luther’s wife. While there are numerous letters and documents detailing much of M. Luther’s life, there is a relative paucity of information about his wife. Yet, there is considerable data detailing life in 16th century Germany, especially for a woman in a male-dominated culture. Though she lived in the shadow of her husband’s fame, she was no shrinking violet, and in many ways, far ahead of her time. She had her own opinions and identity, yet was able to support her husband and family, along with his idiosyncrasies. As you might expect, this also gives many details of Martin’s life as well. The book will be discussed at the next meeting on Tuesday, July 24 at 7:30 p.m. Contact Terry Tegtmeier if you’d like a book ($8 apiece).

PRAYER FOCUS FOR JULY 2018 - SPIRITUAL REVIVAL IN AMERICA

“Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation,
and all nations on earth will be blessed through him.”

Genesis 18:18 - Revive us, O Lord! We pray for a great awakening of hope, healing, and salvation in America.

Forgive us our personal sins and the sins of our people.

May our nation fulfill her great destiny and purposes.

Awaken us to our need for You and our total dependence on You! Bless us, Lord, to be a nation that is powerful-- so we can be strong within and a blessing to other nations on earth.

Happy Fourth of July:

ICA – Art Conservation” from Cleveland has repaired any dry cracks in the oil painting of Christ in Gethsemane. The treatment will preserve the painting for future years to come.

DRESS A CHILD: The Dress A Child program continues to work in northern Tuscarawas County to support our students (Grades K-12) in beginning a new school year in a positive way. We are committed to providing new school clothes to the children whose families meet the federal poverty guidelines. Last year 1,348 children were able to shop for new clothes with a $52 voucher per child. Clothes shopping is supervised and approved by our volunteers. Please note that 100 percent of all donations go to the clothing vouchers.

Our children need your continual support and prayers. If you are able to help, please make your check payable to Dress A Child, place it in an envelope, and put it in the offering plate. If you wish to pay with cash, place the cash in an envelope; put your name on the front of the envelope, and into the offering plate. If you would like to volunteer to help with registration or with shopping, please talk with Cheryl Simers or Carol Hoskinson.

DRESS A CHILD: In 2017, 1,348 students were able to shop at Kohl's and Walmart with a $52 Voucher. Even though we had more children shopping, Kohl's gave an extra $10 certificate and discounts to each child. If you would like to help support this worthy project and want to pay with a check, please make the check out to "Dress a Child," place it in an envelope, and put it in the offering plate on July 1, 8, or 15. If you wish to pay with cash, place the cash in an envelope, and put it in the offering plate. If you would like to help with registration or with shopping, please talk to Cheryl Simers or Carol Hoskinson.
