CHRISTMAS MEMORIES

There is no other time of the year that is more nostalgic than Christmas. Many of us have childhood memories of Christmas that we will cherish for a lifetime. In my younger days, Christmas vacation was something that I looked forward to every year. Decorating the tree as a child was a time to marvel at the many types of ornaments that adorned a live tree. My favorite part was playing with an electric train under the tree. I also recall the many times in which the train was derailed by my sister's pranks. I also remember the opportunity to stay up late and go to midnight Mass, albeit the nuns adamantly discouraged children from attending.

Christmas is identified with gift giving and I can remember special toys that I wanted as child and was fortunate enough to receive most of them. Growing older, I discovered a much greater satisfaction in giving than receiving.

Of course, the greatest memory we all have as believers is the account of the birth of Jesus at Christmas. We yearn to hear that familiar story of the shepherds and the Magi. The beautiful Christmas carols bring joy and peace to a weary world each year. I enjoy hearing them long after Christmas is over.

As we age, we accumulate so many memories that it is impossible to understand our present situation without the influences that our past experiences have upon us. We are a product of our past. Yet, we can use those memories to create a better future. Fond memories from Christmas can provide the foundation for gratitude and the basis for a stronger faith in God.

I suggest that best memory we can have at Christmas is that God never stops thinking and caring about the world and its inhabitants. God gave the world the gift of Jesus who saves us and frees us from the power of sin and evil.

In closing, I ask you to add to your list of Christmas memories, a time of worship with others who share similar memories of the birth of Jesus. Please join us at St. Paul on Wednesday, December 24 at 7:00 pm for a Candlelight service.

Christmas in Tanzania: Christmas in Tanzania: OnePlusGod Ministries: The school supplies and goats have been covered by donations, so the need is now to fund a complete Christmas dinner for the 1100 residents of three villages. Each dinner costs $5 and the goal is to fund 1100 meals. The church council has approved an expenditure of $2,500 so there is still a need for other contributions to provide meals. Place all donations in the gold-papered box at the back of the church and make checks payable to OnePlusGod Ministries.

Rebekah Sisters & Sonshine Ladies are running a fill the basket campaign to fill 8 laundry baskets with supplies for the Homeless Shelter. We will set up a table in the narthex to collect items in laundry baskets for the Homeless Shelter. - If you have questions, please contact Beth Pirillo

Rebekah's Sisters Sonshine Ladies

The Rebekah's Sisters Sonshine Ladies met in November; we were happy to meet at Hennis Care Centre with Pam and ten others in attendance. What a blessing it was to sit down, be noisy, be sisters, and work collectively. Always on our mind are the homeless, the dependent, the abused and the children affected by it all.

Thank you for supporting us and providing the resources to lift others up in hope and love. We especially appreciate your prayers for all the people suffering hardships and insecurities.

DECEMBER 2025 PRAYER FOCUS

Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Luke 2:20

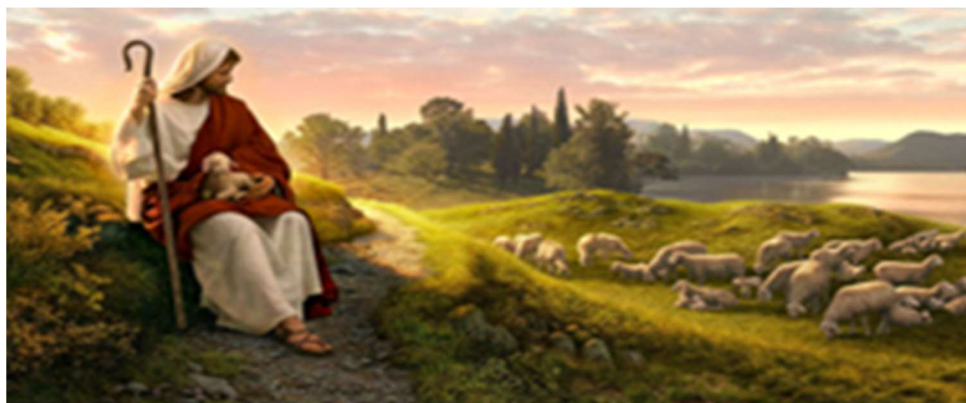

The word “shepherd” is found in the Bible 101 times. As the Messiah, Christ was meant to lead the Jewish people who were “like sheep with no shepherd” (Num 27:17; I Kings 22:17; 2 Chron 18:16). Shepherds had an important role in ancient times – they protected and guided their flocks which were a primary source of food and wool for their communities. Despite this, shepherds were looked down on by society.

In His wisdom and timing, instead of revealing Christ’s birth to the religious leaders in Isreal, God chose to reveal the birth of Christ to humble shepherds tending their sheep, who responded in awe and wonder at what they observed.

The Lord does not demand greatness to be His witness. If He can use shepherds to see, hear and proclaim the news of Christ’s birth, He can use you and me to share the true meaning of Christmas!

Don’t be hesitant to share what the birth of Christ means to you personally – it’s the greatest story ever told and the Messiah is the greatest gift you will ever receive!

Pray for an opportunity to share the good news of Christmas with somebody today!
