From the Pastor...

LOOKING FORWARD

As another year comes to an end, it is often the practice to make resolutions for the New Year. Many times, of course, these resolutions are not satisfied, but the truth remains that we make them because of an inherent optimism that exists within us. We are creatures of hope that look forward to better times ahead. The New Year gives us the opportunity to assess our situations and ascertain the means to personal progress and hopefully spiritual growth.

Social scientists and psychologists alike agree that without hope there is no reason to look forward albeit another day awaits us. As believers, our hope is in the risen Lord who comes to this world each day. After just celebrating the birth of Jesus, we look forward to the ways in which He brought hope to a fallen world. His inspirational words and miraculous deeds demonstrate very clearly the significance of His life.

The hope of the world depends upon the joy of Easter and Christ risen from the dead. St. Paul tells us that if Christ is not raised then our faith is in vain. I would respectfully add that our hope is also n vain. There is nothing to look forward to if life does end at the grave. We whole heartedly believe that it does not so there is good reason to look forward.

Optimism rooted in the resurrection of Jesus, gives life to the world and enlivens the faithful to share that good news with others which is the goal of evangelism. As this New Year begins, I ask you to cherish and value the faith given to you by the Holy Spirit each day to bring purpose and meaning to our existence. We look forward because we know and hold firmly in the notion that God is present and guiding our lives by the truths revealed in the Scriptures. Regardless of what happens in the coming year, God is with us and will bring all things to fulfillment in accordance with His will.

With that pleasant thought in mind, I hope that you are looking forward to God's grace with each day that you live. I close with best wishes for the New Year as well as a continued growth in the life of the spirit which unites us with the God who looks forward to sharing love and mercy with the world.

JANUARY 2026 PRAYER FOCUS

And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His likeness with ever increasing glory

2 Corinthians 3:18

How have I grown in God's grace over the past year?

Is this something that can be measured?

Bishop J. C. Ryle puts it this way:

"When I speak of growth in grace, I mean an increase in degree, size, strength, vigor and power of the graces that the spirit plants in our hearts. When I speak of a person growing in grace, I mean simply this – that his sense of sin is becoming deeper, his faith is stronger, his hope brighter and his love more extensive. He feels more of the power of godliness in his heart. He manifests more of it in his life."

Is this sense of sin deeper than it was last year?

Is your hope brighter?

Do you sense more of the power of godliness in your life?

We can be transformed into His likeness. Change is possible, and a new and improved you is within reach in this new year.

This is how it happens. Behold the Lord's glory and you will grow in grace.

Let's pray

Lord Jesus, I behold You today in all Your majesty and splendor. Your excellence and Your purity. Transform me into the person you want me to be as I grow in Your grace. Lord of beginnings, I am ready to have You do something new in my life this year. Thank You for leading me, I am ready to follow. Amen

On New Year's Day

On New Year's Day a year ago,
I kicked a rock and broke my toe.
Then February came around;
I slipped on ice and smacked the ground.

In March I tripped and skinned my knee.
In April, met an angry bee.
In May a baseball hit my hip.
In June I bit my lower lip.

I banged my elbow in July.
When August came, I poked my eye.
September, I fell out of bed.
October's when I hurt my head.

November, had a nasty fall.
December, crashed into a wall.
So, you can truly not believe how glad I am it's New Year's Eve.

Though, this year, I was so annoyed, at least I know what to avoid beginning January first.
Goodbye, last year. You were the worst.

— Kenn Nesbitt

Book Club: The next Book Club selection will be “A.D. 33” by Ted Dekker. This is historical novel by an author who has written numerous other novels about the sequel to another book, “A.D. 30”.

Maviah is the main character, a Bedouin woman with a history of tragedy, illegitimacy, slavery, royalty, and many others. She threatens the powers of rulers, who want to crush her world. Along the way she meets a man named Yeshua, which eventually changes everything.

Bookreporter.com states: “Maviah’s story of heartbreak and loss, faith and belief, will captivate readers from the first page of A.D,33 to the very last.”

Contact Terry Tegtmeier if you would like a copy at $7.00. we will be discussing at the end of January, either the 20th or the 27th of January.
